Meet Elizabeth...

TALENTS: piano, trumpet, violin, ballet and pointe, visual art, acting/singing

SCHOOL ACTIVITIES: Key Club, Student Council, National Honors Society

VOLUNTEERING: Communities that Care Coalition (CTC)

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE: attend a college with a great theater program

FAVORITE SPOT NEAR RIDGWAY: Blaine Basin (in the Mount Sneffels Wilderness Area of the Uncompahgre National Forest) – a beautiful hike especially in the late summer when the wildflowers are in bloom

Welcome to the town of Ridgway. My name's Elizabeth, I'm a junior at Ridgway Secondary School, and I am so glad to be able to call Ridgway my home! One thing I love about living here is that Ridgway, though small, never ceases to search for opportunities to celebrate our community and our area. Particularly in the summer, Ridgway booms with activity, like the Town Park Movie Nights, the Farmers Market, rodeo, concerts, and so much more. Then, as the trees change color and the ground starts to frost, people gear up for Skijoring, ice climbing, ski season, and "Noel Night" in December, just to name a few.

As a home to many artists, Ridgway cultivates a love for literature and visual art, as seen in the numerous poems you can find posted about town and sculptures around every corner. Anyone visiting our town is greeted by open arms and the immediate impression that we "Think Outside," emphasizing our shared love for art, community and the outdoors.

While Ridgway is beautiful, exciting, spunky and a treat for all who visit, what sticks with you most will always be the people. Looking back on my childhood, I couldn't have asked for a better place to get to know the world than in Ridgway. After just one day, you can tell that the most beautiful feature of our town is not the change in color of the aspen trees in the fall or the snowcapped Mount Sneffels, but it is the true sense of community that the people of Ridgway share. We look out for each other – typically, the worst thing to happen here is an escaped yak.

I am so proud to be from this lovely, little town, and I wouldn't exchange it for any other place. Welcome to Ridgway!

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Mueller

We're Ready for You

When you're looking for the exhilaration of outdoor recreation, the serenity of pristine alpine beauty or the inspiration of cultural exploration, Ridgway, Colorado is your destination. Our small-town hospitality is a blend of the spirit of the Old West, healthy lifestyles and laid-back, friendly folks.

A quiet, western town with charismatic energy – Ridgway is a welcoming, rural community situated in a beautiful mountain valley. We support learning, creativity and culture. We share a deep connection to the outdoors. We are committed to being economically sustainable and ecologically responsible.

Ridgway was founded in 1890, as the headquarters of the world famous Rio Grande Southern narrow gauge railroad serving the area's rich silver and gold mines, ranches and farms. Today the railroad is gone, but its memories remain at the acclaimed Ridgway Railroad Museum. The ranches still dot the valley, preserving open space so special to the area. There is also an amazing wildlife presence throughout the region. Most famous are the bald eagles, which nest in the cottonwoods along the Uncompahgre River.

A town's main street says a lot about the community—bringing to life the heritage and authenticity of the area and inspiring creative energy and pride. Filled with unique businesses, excellent restaurants and fantastic views, Ridgway's downtown is one of the few in Colorado to be both a Certified Creative District and a Designated Main Street Community.

Designated as a Colorado Certified Creative Arts District since 2013, the town is known for its vigorous creative community. The town boasts a concert stage in Hartwell Park, which is home to the outdoor summer July concert series. In addition, the restored historic Sherbino Theater offers music, movies and much more. Several studios, galleries and sculptures are here to discover. Dozens of one-of-a-kind, family-owned shops and several award-winning restaurants plus a local brewery make this an exciting place to settle in and spend some time.

Ridgway was awarded 2015 Colorado Main Street of the Year, particularly for the planning and implementation of its downtown revitalization and beautification efforts, combined with historic preservation. The result is a comfortable, picturesque streetscape featuring a wide range of amenities, art and inviting places to shop, eat and be entertained.

We welcome you to explore and discover Ridgway in every season!

A Happening Place with Heart

VISITORS AND LOCALS ALIKE have been enjoying a new online information portal for everything Ridgway since the redesigned RidgwayColorado.com website was launched last summer. Updated and relaunched by the Ridgway Area Chamber of Commerce, the new website is the No. 1 Google search result for "Ridgway Colorado" searches, and No. 2 just behind the Ridgway town government website on Yahoo and AOL.

The chamber improved site navigation and content, making it much more interactive and searchable. In addition to the user-friendly navigation and rich content, the improvements include reorganization of content based on useful categories.

The "Things To Do" category features top activities in the Ridgway area: Outdoor Adventure, Arts & Entertainment, History & Heritage, Health & Wellness, and Culinary Experiences. The other categories, which feature useful articles and tips about visiting Ridgway, include Places to Stay, Dining Out, Shopping & Retail, and News & Events. Event information and news are updated frequently, so visit RidgwayColorado.com often when planning your activities in our area.

DOWNTOWN IMPROVEMENTS

If you've visited Ridgway previously, you will likely notice some changes in our historic downtown core. If this is your first visit, ask any local person what it used to look like – think muddy and dusty streets!

The town and its partners, Colorado Department of Transportation and the state Department of Local Affairs, invested more than $10 million in the past couple of years to improve the State Highway 62 corridor through town and revitalize the downtown historic business district. Recently completed improvements included: asphalt streets, concrete sidewalks, colored concrete crosswalks, storm water drainage, ADA parking and access, decorative lighting, street trees, and planting areas.

Custom furnishings (most locally or regionally made), such as artful benches, sculptures, planters and bike racks, also beautify the area. These improvements are the result of more than a decade of planning and public engagement to make downtown Ridgway more visible as a creative place and even more inviting for visitors and locals.

Kathryn Lair

RIDGWAY SPACE TO CREATE

The next major project for the town will be financing, designing and constructing a multi-million dollar live-work facility to provide long-term affordable housing for the many individuals who are engaged in the creative sector, and their families. This facility will likely also include production and commercial spaces.

Colorado Creative Industries and its collaborators in Space to Create Colorado selected Ridgway for this opportunity in Fall 2016. Since then, a preliminary feasibility study and a thorough market survey of the creative sector resulted in detailed reports indicating sufficient demand to justify the creation of this new facility. Pretty exciting for a town of almost 1,000 residents! Related reports are available on the town's website: town.ridgway.co.us.

ADAPTIVE SPORTS

Surrounding ski towns like Crested Butte and Telluride are proud to host established programs for Adaptive Sports. Several outdoor sports are made available to athletes with various abilities year-round. Ridgway is home to LEADS Serves, a new nonprofit organization that serves young people, adaptive athletes, veterans and their families, and. Whether biking (including with fat tires in winter), skiing, hiking or climbing, our San Juan Mountains are a playground for ALL who choose to adventure here!

Ridgway is surrounded by many opportunities to cross country ski and snowshoe. In addition to the area's endless number of backcountry trails, Top of the Pines is the closest option with seven kilometers of trails groomed for Nordic skating and classic flat-track skiing as well as open fields to snowshoe.

Looking for a multi-day excursion? Try snowshoeing or skiing in the backcountry, spending your days exploring the snowy hills that surround Ridgway. Warm up in the evenings in a cozy hut from San Juan Huts surrounded by friends and family, soaking up the warmth and conversations about your adventures. To book a unique outdoor adventure, contact one of our local outfitters. Listings start on page 36 on the Ouray side.

Explore on Foot – Trails Galore!

The Dennis Weaver Memorial Park is a magical place of reflection and relaxation dedicated to the memory and vision of actor and environmentalist Dennis Weaver. This 60-acre public park is a permanent wildlife preserve and riparian area along the Uncompahgre River, where you may see wildlife including eagles, a blue heron, deer and foxes. Within the park are miles of winding hiking and biking trails with a lovely picnic area and restrooms.

Park highlights include the Eagle Monument, a 2,800-pound bronze sculpture with a 20-foot wingspan; an astronomically aligned medicine wheel made from a ring of stones; and the Poem Rock inscribed with Dennis Weaver's words about the Eagle. For more information, go to dennisweaverpark.com

TRAILS FOR ALL EXPERIENCE LEVELS, ranging from easy and short to longer and more challenging terrain, abound in Ridgway and the surrounding area. You can walk, run and hike within town limits, or you can follow trail connections into Ridgway State Park and as far as the San Juan Mountains, the Mount Sneffels and Cimarron Wilderness areas, the Uncompahgre National Forest, and surrounding BLM lands.

From the Weaver Trail System and the Angel Ridge Trails (both accessible from Town Park) to high alpine trails such as the Dallas Trail, more than 40 miles of hiking routes access some of the most beautiful scenery in the country. From day trips to overnight backpacking there are many choices.

Popular local trails include: Stagecoach Hill, an easy 1.4-mile round-trip from the Dennis Weaver Memorial Park with great Sneffels views; Rollans Park, an easy, refreshing 0.2 mile stretch through the cottonwoods west of the Uncompahgre River; and the scenic, concrete 2.5-mile (one-way) Ridgway River Trail from Town Park to Ridgway State Park at County Road 24.

Everyone knows that training at altitude in the Colorado mountains is the best way to get in shape and be inspired. Plus, you can schedule your trip during one of our many running and walking races to get in some competition while here, too.

Be prepared before heading into the high country and get specific information about your hike, location of the trail head, difficulty level, length and elevation gain. Many trails will lead you to high altitude destinations and it is helpful to get acclimated on easier hikes before venturing on more strenuous ones. Afternoon thunderstorms are common in the high country so start early and be prepared for unpredictable weather. Wear sunscreen, drink lots of water and be prepared for sudden and extreme weather changes.

Stop by the Visitor's Center or a local bookstore to pick up a good hiking book or a map. The Ouray Trail Group has information on the status of many trails, with some maps and pictures at ouraytrails.org. Also, consider buying a Colorado Outdoor Recreation Search and Rescue (CORSAR) card, which supports the state's search and rescue fund and reimburses teams for the costs they incur to provide help. (This is not an insurance card – search and rescue teams will always come to your aid.)

Ridgway State Park & Reservoir

The Ridgway Reservoir was originally planned in a location that would have inundated the town of Ridgway, but was eventually created about six miles north of the town. Since being filled with water in 1989, the reservoir has become a major recreational resource at the heart of a state park, in addition to its intended use as a water supply for local agriculture.

With unparalleled scenery, the park is an inviting destination with diverse amenities to keep you occupied for an afternoon or as many days as you can spare. Besides the endless water sports, visitors can enjoy many hiking and biking trails along with birding and wildlife viewing opportunities.

Dogs are welcome in the park, as long as they stay with their owners at all times. Even two of the yurts are pet-friendly.

Education programs for the public begin on Memorial Day weekend and go throughout the summer each year. The Park Visitor Center has many items that it lends for free to make trips more fun: fishing poles and tackle; life jackets; and "Family Activity Backpacks" fully equipped with journals, binoculars, magnifiers, guidebooks and magnifying bug boxes, along with suggested activities and fun facts sheets.

AMENITIES

- The 1,000-surface-acre reservoir allows for boating, fishing (stocked rainbow and native brown trout), waterskiing, sailing, paddleboarding, windsurfing and swimming.
- The park offers popular campgrounds, group event facilities, a marina, picnic and playground areas, as well as nearly 14 miles of developed trails meandering through the park.
- Ridgway State Park offers year-round camping. During the high season (mid-May to mid-September), 258 campsites for RVs, trailers, campers and motorhomes are available, as well as 25 walk-in tent sites for a more remote experience. Three yurts at the Dutch Charlie area provide a fun alternative for overnight stays.
- Daily Park Pass: $7; Camping fees: $29-$37; Yurt fees: $87
- For information, maps and reservations, go to parks.state.co.us/ridgway.

PARK ENTRANCES

- Pa-Co-Chu-Puk, which means "Cow Creek" in the Ute language, is located below the Ridgway Dam. This area offers campsites, a large group event pavilion, pond and river trout fishing, and access to several miles of hiking and biking trails.
- The Dutch Charlie site was named after a pioneer who ran a boarding house near the present-day swim beach. It includes most of the major facilities and the Park Visitors Center. Swimmers can enjoy a beautiful beach and boats can find harbor in the marina.
- The Dallas Creek site, closest to Ridgway, provides daytime activities and picnic sites. In addition, the confluence of the Uncompahgre River and Dallas Creek is a perfect place for viewing wildlife.

MOUNTAIN AND ROAD BIKING: FIND YOUR PACE

Whether you are looking for an easy bike path or a more extreme off-road experience through the San Juan Mountains, you can access a wide variety of back roads and trails from Ridgway or enjoy a few spectacular rides on paved roads.

Ridgway's Uncompahgre River Trail begins downtown and travels gently towards Ridgway State Park's Dallas Creek area. The concrete trail runs primarily on the former Denver & Rio Grande Western Railroad corridor and features a restored railroad trestle just north of town. For a scenic ride among rolling ranchland that is a bit longer, follow County Road 23, County Road 17 and Oak Street to Ouray (approximately 25 miles round trip on gravel road).

The amazing road-biking route on Highway 62 from Ridgway to Placerville was once part of the Ride the Rockies. The highway provides a small but adequate shoulder, peaks on Dallas Divide at 8,970 feet, and rewards the strenuous climbs with tremendous views of the Sneffels range.

The Ridgway Area Trails Group (RAT) is the Sneffels Chapter of the Colorado Plateau Mountain Bike Association (COPMOBA) and is responsible for creating a wonderful multi-use trail system with fantastic mountain bike terrain. From the RAT trails surrounding Ridgway and beyond, to high alpine trails such as the Dallas Trail, there are more than 40 miles of single track in what many refer to as some of the most beautiful scenery in the country.

The Dallas Trail is one of our most challenging single tracks with breathtaking views (and climbs). This trail is not for the faint of heart as it includes a very technical descent into Ouray. This approximately 30-mile classic can be done as a shuttle or loop right from the center of Ridgway. For a shorter version of the ride, plan to travel from the Blue Lakes trailhead to Box Factory and back, on the west end of the Dallas Trail.

The San Juan Hut Systems, based in Ridgway, can help you plan your next mountain bike trip. The fully stocked huts, strategically located on dirt roads and single-track trails from the high alpine tundra of the San Juan Mountains to the canyon country of Utah, allow for exciting biking/touring multi-day adventures without the weight of supplies and gear.

Bike rentals in Ridgway offer a way to get you out on the trails this summer when you don't want to bring your gear. If you need more help outfitting your biking adventure, refer to our local business listings starting on page 33 on the Ouray side.

Summer River Activities

Rafting, Kayaking & Other River Fun

Summer's sunny skies bring snowmelt into our rivers and open up many warm weather water adventures. Tranquil alpine lakes and meandering streams give way to fast-moving waters and change to where rafters, kayakers and canoeists enjoy the thrill of the area's rushing rivers.

Spring snowmelt from high in the San Juan Mountains brings increased water flows to our local rivers and adventure opportunities for rafters and kayakers alike. Plan a raft trip to enjoy pristine wilderness, world-class fishing and stunning geology.

RIDGWAY RIVERFEST JUNE 30, 2018

On the last weekend of every June, the community comes together for a party at the Uncompahgre River in Ridgway's Rollans Park. The Ridgway RiverFest is a fun, friendly and free festival with an array of activities for all ages featuring entertaining river races on inflatable and hard-shell boats, stand up paddle boards and homemade watercraft. Other highlights include live music, youth entertainment, a Ute cultural presentation, face painting, festival food, locally brewed beers and icy margaritas. Plus, a silent auction offers great deals on river gear and apparel, outdoor adventures, local store and restaurant certificates, and a variety of keepsakes and gifts. With the theme of "Celebrating our Watershed," the annual festival helps fund the water protection and restoration efforts of the Uncompahgre Watershed Partnership, a Ouray County nonprofit. For 2018 celebration details, go to ridgwayriverfest.org.

WHITEWATER SAFETY & DIFFICULTY RANKINGS

Although rafting rivers is fun, it is also an activity that requires a high level of experience to safely maneuver a boat through any whitewater situation. So, before you go, make sure your leader is properly versed and equipped for a variety of whitewater situations. When choosing a trip, make sure you aren't getting in over your head.

Rating the difficulty of a rapid is based on a numerical rating system called "Class," with class I (flat and moving water), up to class VI (Niagara Falls). For families or first timers, Class I – III is the way to go. For physically fit, experienced boaters, class III – IV makes the most sense. Note: class V ratings are unadvised unless you are a trained professional and ready for combat swimming! Have fun & don't forget to contact your local rafting outfitter to receive the most up to date information on conditions, access, gear and guided trips.

TUBING & STAND UP PADDLE BOARDING (SUP)

Year-Round Fishing

KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

A fishing license is required to fish from Colorado waterways. Information on licenses and special regulations may be found at cpw.state.co.us. For guiding, gear and tips, visit our local experts at RIGS Fly Shop & Guide Service in Ridgway or refer to our local business listings starting on page 33 on the Ouray side.

Colorado is home to miles of trout streams, so it should not be a surprise that many excellent fishing opportunities are located within a short distance from Ridgway. Whether you are a veteran or novice, a stay in charming Ridgway will allow you to experience great year-round fishing, as well as float fishing trips, walk and wade guided fly fishing trips and instructional clinics.

BLUE RIBBON, HIGH COUNTRY GOLD MEDAL WATERS

Ridgway is centrally-located within one hour of six major trout streams and rivers, which boast clean waters, feisty fish, and draw out the fisherman in everyone all year long. There are secluded alpine lakes and streams full of stocked and native trout for the fisherman who likes an adventure and easily accessible sport waters along the Uncompahgre River corridor. The reservoir and catch-and-release waters in Ridgway State Park offer fishing opportunities for the whole family, including free fishing for kids during Huck Finn days in the summer.

RIGS Fly Shop & Guide Service – Crystal Lake

RIDGWAY STATE PARK & RESERVOIR

Southern Colorado's tailwater fishery below Ridgway Reservoir, at the Pa-Co-Chu-Puk entrance of the State Park, offers anglers an unparalleled fishing experience year-round. Extensive rehabilitation has resulted in prime habitat for Rainbow, Brown and Cutthroat trout and catch-and-release Blue Ribbon Waters revealing deep runs and large pools.

This beautiful setting with a marina and numerous points of access make for a great fishing destination for the whole family. Stocked rainbow and native brown trout make up the game fish within the reservoir.

REMOTE ADVENTURES

Brook and rainbow trout can also be found in some tributaries of the Uncompahgre River. Access to Dallas Creek, Canyon Creek or Upper Cow Creek is more limited, but the reward might very well be a bigger catch.

RIGS Fly Shop & Guide Service – Cimarron River

RIGS Fly Shop & Guide Service – Pa-Co-Chu-Puk

Fishing in surrounding alpine lakes may be the preferred choice for those seeking solitude and grand vistas. A few-mile hike will lead you to magnificent lakes and make for great fishing stories. In the Cimarrons, the waters of Silver Jack Reservoir are more accessible but also offer quality fishing in a serene setting.

FALL & WINTER FISHING

Visiting Ridgway during the fall and winter gives you access to great fishing with less pressure; leading to a more productive day. If you have never tried fishing during your winter vacation, we encourage you to give it a try. There's nothing quite like having the whole river to yourself on a crisp, cloudless winter day.

Set aside some time to play in our beautiful waters; our local guides are always ready to show you their favorite secret falls and fishing holes and always have the best tips on water levels and hatches. For guiding, gear and tips, visit our local experts at RIGS Fly Shop & Guide Service in Ridgway or refer to our local business listings starting on page 33 on the Ouray side.

Ultimate Experiences on Land & in the Sky

Sue Husch - Elk herd

The outdoors in Ridgway is synonymous with natural beauty. Exploring the backcountry or wandering through town just after dawn or at dusk, the scenery and wildlife astound and inspire you to discover more. Here are other ways to enjoy the area.

HOT AIR BALLOONING

San Juan Balloon takes adventurous spirits high over the town to take in expansive views of the region's amazing landscape and mountain ranges.

HORSEBACK RIDING

For a true Western experience, ride one of the many horse-friendly trails that surround Ridgway and Ouray on your own horse or with one of Ouray County's experienced outfitters.

GOLFING

Ouray County's 300-plus days of sunshine make it an ideal golfing destination. The award-winning golf course at the Divide Ranch & Club is located only four miles from Ridgway and features an 18-hole course with incredible views and 7,039 yards of challenging play.

WILDLIFE VIEWING

Southwest Colorado is teeming with wildlife to view year-round. Most notable in the region are mountain lions, badgers, deer, elk, bears, coyotes, wild turkeys, porcupines and bald eagles; all are indigenous to the area. Birding opportunities also abound throughout the year.

- Over 140 species of migratory and resident birds have been identified in the area.
- Bald eagles are a common sight in the late fall through mid-February, nesting in the cottonwoods along the Uncompahgre River from the town of Ridgway to the Dallas Creek entrance in the State Park. The best times to view roosting eagles are early morning or late in the day.

Bring your binoculars and telephoto lens. Eagles won't tolerate close approaches and they see five to eight times better than humans.

- Elk and deer inhabit our wide-open valleys throughout the year. You can see majestic herds of both traversing their migratory paths each year. Watch out when driving any mountain roads. Deer in particular can suddenly appear in the road. Observe speed limits and keep your eyes out ahead to prevent accidents with animals.
- Mountain lions, though rarely seen, cover a vast terrain across the entire state. One of the state's largest prides calls Ouray County home.

FUN AT THE SKATE PARK

Experience a skate park designed and created by nationally recognized Grindline Skateparks in collaboration with Ridgway High School students. The park is 5,000 square feet with a bowl section as well as an open area to practice jumps. Bring your skateboard, scooter or bike and join our friendly locals for a fun session.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Opportunities for amazing photos abound throughout the four seasons, with vivid colors, snowcapped mountains, and incredible sunrises and sunsets. The San Juan Mountains are the most photographed mountains in Colorado, and Owl Creek Pass provides remote access to amazing landscapes and wildlife.

HUNTING

As summer comes to an end and the temperatures cool down, thousands of elk and deer come down to lower elevations. Ridgway is surrounded by the Uncompahgre National Forest, which boasts many excellent hunting grounds and prime Elk Parcel Units 65 and 62. # Explore our Entertaining Visual Landscape

The Ridgway Creative Arts District is filled with treasures in the form of the many painters, sculptors, musicians, performers and other artists who make their homes here and set up their studios around town. With so many talented and creative types around, you don't have to go far or wait long to discover an artistic display or lively entertainment.

Ridgway's shops and galleries are also filled with one-of-a-kind items made right here in Ridgway. We hope you will take the time to explore and enjoy our artistic town. River Park light industrial area has creative things happening also from coffee roasting to architectural welding.

SCULPTURES SPREAD DOWNTOWN & BEYOND

Our trails, parks and alleys feature locally made sculptures, murals and public art. You can find more than 20 amazing sculptures scattered throughout the Town of Ridgway. Demonstrating our love for local wildlife, many bronze creatures inhabit the town including three eagles of varying sizes – Weaver Memorial Park features an American bald eagle with a 20-foot wingspan.

Public Art in Ridgway (PARC), founded in 2010 by a group of local citizens, is responsible for the largest number of sculptures. PARC carries out its mission of promoting Ridgway and our excellent Western Slope artists by installing their art in outdoor spaces – most available for sale. Most of their installations are in Hartwell Park and next to Town Hall, with a few across Lena Street and in the yard at the historic firehouse. With names like Maleficent, The Art of Ping Pong and The Fountain of Life, you will want search out each of these unique pieces. For a map of public art locations, visit publicartridgwayco.org/Walking-Tour.php

The Town of Ridgway also installed several sculptures as part of its RAMP Up! Project. Durango artist Bryan Saren created five thought-provoking sculptures with different themes. Four – Endemic, Harvest, Resource, and Heart – are on the Sherman Street (Highway 62) bridge over the Uncompaghre River. And the fifth, Focus, is at the corner of Sherman (62) and North Lena Street. Visit each sculpture to see how its design portrays what it represents.

THE GREAT BENCH DEBATE

Public benches are great places to meet friends and discuss life. The benches installed on sidewalks around downtown Ridgway in 2017 are unique conversation starters. Some are more rustic steel and wood seats, while one is humorously held up by thick, spring-like legs. Bench makers include Tom Bennett of Ridgway, Jeff Skoloda of Ouray and 3 Cycle Studio in Hotchkiss.

California artist Colin Selig created most of the colorful, modern benches as part sculpture and part sustainable design from salvaged, re-purposed propane tanks. Besides containing 99 percent post-consumer reused content, the curvy benches are designed from extensive research for optimum ergonomic advantage and comfort.

The Arts Come Alive in Ridgway

Weehawken Creative Arts – Michael McCullough's Amateur Sculpting Contest

Ridgway is a vibrant, creative community that thrives on our inspiring setting, with many venues from coffee houses to an historic theater and an outdoor stage where performers display their talents and experts share their knowledge. Whatever your interest or passion, our event calendar is sure to have an activity, presentation or educational experience to match it!

CONCERTS, LECTURES, FILMS, FESTIVALS & MORE

The Sherbino building was built and opened by Louis B. Sherbino in September 1915, and was designated a Colorado State Landmark in 1991 for its significant role in the social and cultural heritage of the Town of Ridgway. During its 102-year history, the Sherbino has been a performance venue, a roller skating rink, a teepee and yurt factory, a film house, an illegal gambling hall, a post office, a live music hall and more.

In January 2012, the community-based Ridgway Chautauqua Society (RCS) was formed and took up the challenge of restoring and operating this treasured historic theater. Since then, RCS has successfully positioned the Sherbino as a lively space where art, creativity and community thrive. Starting primarily with live music by local, regional and national acts, the programming is diverse. The RCS also organizes an outdoor film series in partnership with the Town of Ridgway during the summer.

In an average year at the Sherbino, over 550 volunteer slots are filled, helping support more than 30 live music events, 15 art classes, 12 lectures, three community theater productions, 12 film presentations, eight poetry readings and several fundraising events. For more information, visit sherbino.org.

VISUAL & PERFORMING ARTS PERFORMANCES & WORKSHOPS

Weehawken Creative Arts has transformed the lives of adults and children through arts education, dance programs and beloved community events. The nonprofit organization offers arts and cultural classes year-round in Ridgway and surrounding communities in a variety of subjects, ranging from traditional fine arts to personal growth and professional development.

In addition to classes and workshops, Weehawken hosts and organizes a multitude of special annual events for the communities: the Ridgway Rendezvous Arts and Crafts Festival (Aug.); three major full-scale ballet/dance productions featuring more than 250 area youth including The Nutcracker (Dec., April, May); the Gingerbread House Decorating Workshops (Dec.); the Sneffels Fiber Arts Festival (Sept.); Michael McCullough's Amateur Sculpting Contest (June); the Ridgway MoonWalks organized by the Creative District (quarterly); and more.

Make time to participate in an individual workshop, drop in on a regular class or attend a performance while you are in town – you'll be inspired and refreshed. Find more information at weehawkenarts.org

OPEN BARD, ALLEY POETRY & ALLEY ART

Open Bard is a fun poetry series on the first Thursday evening of each month, October through May, at the Sherbino. Each evening features nationally or regionally known Colorado poets as featured performers, and includes an open reading by audience members. Find out more at facebook.com/RidgwayPoetrySeries.

Many of the featured poets of Open Bard contribute to a unique Ridgway project, Alley Poetry. Late sculptor Michael McCullough started making and installing signs with poetry and art in alleys around town several years ago, and the community has continued the creative effort.

They are meant to stop you in mid-stride. Read them aloud, read them to yourself... read slowly, read fast, photograph them, Instagram them, enjoy them. Discover more about them at facebook.com/editorinsheaf.

History & Heritage

Explore our Rich Frontier Past

Jim Pettengill - Galloping Goose

Ouray County offers something for every history buff, from easy access to picturesque, abandoned, wooden mining-era buildings to scenic ranches and world-class museums. Prior to the mining and ranching era of the 1860s-1950s, the valley and mountains were the homeland of the Utes. As mining grew, so did the ranching and railroad industries that supported it. Today, Ouray County celebrates its unique Western heritage with museums dedicated to mining, railroading, ranching and the Utes, as well as private collections and a beautiful historic fairgrounds that hosts the annual Ouray County Labor Day Fair & Rodeo.

RIDGWAY RAILROAD MUSEUM

The Ridgway Railroad Museum, founded in 1999, is dedicated to preserving the history of railroading in Ouray County. The museum, located at the Ridgway Visitors Center just west of the highways 550 and 62 intersection, has six narrow gauge cars on exhibit with interpretive displays in several of the cars. The cars include a caboose, stock car, box car, drop-bottom gondola, business car and a water service car. In addition, the museum has an exact replica of the 1931 Rio Grande Southern (RGS) Motor Car No. 1 as well as the recently restored RGS Goose No. 4, otherwise known as the Galloping Goose. The museum also has an extensive indoor display including an 8-foot by 4-foot diorama of the RGS Ridgway Yard.

For railroad enthusiasts who wish to dive deeper, the Railroad Museum organizes its annual Ouray County Railroad Days in September. This weekend event includes a museum open house, a model railroad open house, a Narrow Gauge Railroad Symposium, hikes along the Silverton Railroad Grade up Red Mountain Pass, the opportunity to ride Motor No. 1 and guided driving tours tracing rail routes from Ridgway to Ouray and up Lizard Head Pass. Plus, the museum coordinates Restoration Work Week every June when volunteers help restore historic items, and holds Weekly Work Sessions every Tuesday, May through October, when people of all ability levels are invited to help out. Find more information at ridgwayrailroadmuseum.org.

OURAY COUNTY RANCH HISTORY MUSEUM

The Ouray County Ranch History Museum features the ranching history that was the lifeblood of northern Ouray County. The Ranching History of Ouray County at the Ridgway Library, funded in 2002 by Ralph and Ricky Lauren, was the catalyst for the nonprofit museum to be created in 2006. First housed in Colona, the museum recently moved into the 1892-93 Ridgway Depot building where visitors can enjoy a growing collection and rotating exhibitions devoted to commemorating the Uncompahgre River Valley's rich ranching lifestyle and the legacy of early ranching families. The museum organizes a guided bus tour each July when visitors are treated to a luncheon and a firsthand look at contemporary life and work on a local ranch. Learn more at ocrhm.org.

Ouray County Rodeo Association Events

Historic news reports tell of a race track built in Ouray County in 1892, and the purchase of a fair and rodeo grounds by the Town of Ridgway in 1898. For nearly 120 years, the fairgrounds just south of the highways 550 and 62 intersection has hosted a variety of community events from barbecues to large rodeos. The Ouray County Labor Day Fair &

Ouray County Fairgrounds – Lone Cone Photography

Rodeo continues to be the biggest, attracting competitors and spectators from far and wide, for amateur and professional horse and bull-riding competitions and livestock shows. The 4H Events Center, located at the fairgrounds, is also a popular venue for nonprofit and private events. Check for event schedules at ouraycountycolorado.org/calendar.html.

Ouray County Fairgrounds – Lone Cone Photography

Ridgway was called home for decades by Billy Dennis Weaver, the late, Emmy Award-winning American actor. He was best known for his work in television, including roles on “Gunsmoke”, as Marshal Sam McCloud on the NBC police drama “McCloud” and in Steven Spielberg’s feature-length directorial debut, the cult TV movie “Duel”, in 1971. Weaver and his family contributed greatly to our community. As an actor, humanitarian and environmentalist, he was an inspiration to many. The Weavers built the big barn, that is now the Ridgway Christian Center on the east side of Highway 550, as a live entertainment venue and their energy-efficient Earth Ship home in Pleasant Valley in the 1990s. But, the most lasting legacy of the Weavers is 60-acre Weaver Memorial Park, approximately 1.5 miles north of Ridgway. Read more about the park on page 10 of this guide.

Chimney Rock in the Cimarrons is above many famous filming locations, including Deb's Meadow from the film, True Grit.

The True Grit Walking Tour

Join the “True Grit” walking tour and get the scoop on those two months in 1968 when Ridgway was transformed into Fort Smith, Arkansas for the filming of True Grit. John Wayne won his only Oscar for his depiction of the crusty, one-eyed Marshall Rooster Cogburn in this blockbuster movie.

Did you know Elvis Presley was considered to perform the soundtrack and the role of Texas Ranger La Boeuf instead of Glen Campbell? Visit the downtown filming sites while a local guide shares interesting facts and anecdotes.

The tour departs from the Ridgway Visitors Center every Friday at 11 a.m. from May to October, but guests should arrive by 10:45 a.m. Reservations are required in May and October and recommended for the summer months; call (970) 626-5181. The cost is $10 per person; children 11 and under are free. Groups of six or more may schedule a tour anytime throughout the year.

Ridgway's seven “True Grit” commemorative plaques each contain a map of sites for those who prefer a self-guided tour. The first two plaques are in Hartwell Park, but the tour may be started at any location.

Visit Famous Filming Locations from the Small & Big Screens

Ouray County is a favorite among film buffs, especially those that love westerns. Our iconic mountains and charming historic small towns have been the backdrop for a number of classic films over the years. Many westerns were filmed here including the original production of "True Grit" starring John Wayne. The Town of Ridgway was turned into an 1880s railroad town and Ouray's own historic courthouse was featured for the courtroom scene in the film.

Visit the meadows on nearby Owl Creek Pass and the wide vistas along the Dallas Divide to feel like you're right in the middle of one of these classic movie scenes. The rugged peaks, steep canyons, rustic mine buildings and historic landmarks of the San Juan Mountains make you feel as though you are still in the Old West of the American frontier. Many film sites, buildings, props and embellishments may still be seen around the area today. More than 100 films have been made in southwestern Colorado.

Fresh Food Discoveries Await

Ridgway residents thrive on fabulous food, which makes our town a great place for visitors to experience local food culture. From fancy French cuisine to freshly made Mexican dishes, our restaurants offer unique menus and diverse options for discerning palates. Keeping up with the farm-to-table trend, many of our markets, restaurants and special events source locally produced meats (including yak), dairy products, vegetables, fruits and herbs. Our town is also home to a variety of culinary artists from coffee roasters to ice cream and candy makers.

Here are a few reasons why Ridgway's culinary offerings are worth experiencing:

RIDGWAY FARMERS MARKET –

Grocery shopping is a special occasion from summer to fall when the Ridgway Farmers Market opens up. Every Friday, May through October, everyone can enjoy a fun morning, afternoon or whole day at the outdoor event. Set up in Hartwell Park, also called Town Park, the market is conveniently located in the heart of Ridgway, next to the highway and plentiful parking. The many tall cottonwood trees spread across the park create a cool, inviting place for the whole family.

FRESH & TASTY FESTIVAL FOOD –

Ridgway's summer festivals and concerts feature fresh, healthy and satisfying meals, snacks and drinks. Local restaurants and food trucks from far and wide set up to serve up festival favorites. Vendors offer salads and sandwiches, barbecue specialties from ribs and pulled pork to chicken, fish tacos and other seafood fare.

A FANTASTIC BEER SELECTION –

Whether you call yourself a beer snob or prefer the term beer lover, the length of the beer list found at Ridgway restaurants is sure to please. From good old American standards to Asian and South American brands, local beer variety also includes some unique European offerings as well as regional and local brews. Colorado Boy Pub & Brewery and Ouray Brewery are two homegrown restaurants that craft a variety of ales, served in many sizes

See the Dining directory on pages 39 on Ouray side for more locations serving beer.

RIDGWAY SEED LIBRARY – Gardeners and anyone with an interest in growing their own food should stop by the Ridgway Seed Library, a free seed project with a mission to support all who wish to plant seeds, grow food and preserve seeds grown within our bio region. Find this unique resource in the Ridgway Public Library, 300 Charles Street.

Ridgway is a great place for retreats, gatherings and meetings. Check out information about venues on the Ouray side of the Visitor's Guide on page 31.

A Haven for Foodies

Ridgway has quietly been developing one of the region's hottest food scenes. This little town of 1,000 residents now offers a wide range of excellent dining options that includes gourmet European cuisine, authentic ceviche, farm fresh creations, expertly made sushi, artisan pizza, traditional Asian cuisines, "gnarly" tacos, unique bar and grill restaurants, specialty breakfast and sandwich spots, and more. Multiple award-winning chefs and food innovators are helping to make our town one of the Western Slope's up-and-coming foodie destinations.

See the complete listing of local eateries in the directory on pages 39 on Ouray side.

Mind, Body & Spirit – a Destination for Whole Health

Ridgway is a hub for wellness professionals and services. Whether you seek relaxation and rejuvenation from massages, hot springs and other health resort amenities, or you are looking for an expert chiropractor, nutritionist or other holistic medicine practitioner, our little town delivers. Plus, you have your pick of yoga and fitness classes from pilates to spin, as well as personal trainers in many sports disciplines. You can find scheduled activities weekly as well as retreats and special trainings and workshops throughout the year. Whether you are a local or a visitor, the Ridgway area has many options for those seeking a little guidance plus a bit of positive comradery while maintaining or increasing your fitness level, or preparing for an upcoming athletic competition.

A SAMPLING OF LOCAL BUSINESSES CATERING TO YOUR HEALTH AND WELLNESS:

- Orvis Hot Springs – seven soaking areas (four outside and three inside), a sauna and natural landscaping with natural lithium water at temperatures ranging from 90 degrees to 112 degrees fahrenheit. Clothing optional.
- Balance Natural Medicine – helping you achieve optimal health balance with personalized therapies, such as: chiropractic, nutritional medicine, soft tissue techniques, hyperbaric oxygen therapy, laser therapy and high altitude relief.
- Chipeta Spa – a serene space with treatments inspired by the southwest and experienced therapists. With four treatment rooms, our 3,000-foot spa also contains a circular cedar sauna, steam room, mirrored yoga room and two solar heated thermal pools.

Lizzie Tilles – REV.

- Weehawken Creative Arts – a wide range of movement arts classes. Known for its diverse dance programming for all ages, other instruction is available in karate, yoga and other disciplines.
- Wholeness – massage and bodywork by Melissa Countryman, specializing in Hakomi-inspired bodywork, ISUN Gemstone Journey, and Swedish, deep tissue, hot stone, aromatherapy and pediatric massage.

See locations, contact information and more services in the business directory on page 40 & 42 on Ouray side.

➤ Getting Acclimated

How to Handle our Altitude & Climate

More than our area's spectacular scenic beauty will take your breath away. Elevations just within Ouray County vary from 6,340 feet at our northern county line to 6,985 feet in Ridgway, 7,792 feet in Ouray, and 14,150 feet at our highest peak, Mount Sneffels. Altitude sickness is a real condition, and can especially affect visitors who have not been acclimated to our area. Combine that with our dry climate, strong sunshine and wide temperature fluctuations and you have a recipe for discomfort or even disaster, unless you prepare and take precautions. Here's a few tips for staying well during your visit.

TIPS TO MAKE YOUR STAY MORE COMFORTABLE

Give your body time to adjust to the altitude.

- Take it easy and avoid strenuous exercise on the first day of your visit.
- Stay down in the valley, around town, at the start of your vacation.
- Pursue your sightseeing and adventure plans by gradually going up to a little higher altitude each day.

Stay hydrated.

- Drink plenty of fluids – especially water.
- Limit alcohol, caffeine and tobacco use.

Be prepared for wide temperature swings and rapidly changing weather, which are common at all elevations.

- Bring the right gear for afternoon showers in the summer and sudden snowstorms in winter in the high country.
- Wear layers and bring a hat: adequate clothing is a must.

Learn to recognize the symptoms of hypothermia and heat stroke.

Remember sunscreen (you're closer to the sun in thinner air that's easier for UV rays to penetrate.)

Activities for Children of All Ages

Children love to explore the world around them; they simply love being outside and being entertained by nature. From rocks that sparkle, aspen trees with eyes, and a variety of wild and domesticated animals, to waters at all temperatures, Ouray County is full of out-of-the-ordinary adventures for kids.

Ouray and Ridgway are wonderful, safe communities that welcome kids and their need for exploration. Winter or summer, this is a great place to have a family vacation without breaking the bank.

Your kids' imaginations will bloom with stories about western movies, cattle drives and mining, especially when paired with a visit to a kid-friendly museum. Their heartbeats will accelerate as they climb a wall of rock or ice, or descend into a canyon via a waterfall. Hiking or horseback riding to the high peaks will give them a bird's eye view of the surrounding mountains. Enjoy free concerts and movies in local parks during the summer season.

Give each child a disposable camera and let them be your family photojournalist for the weekend; you may be surprised what their eyes pick up.

The San Juans are home to endless opportunities for young people to engage in meaningful outdoor activities. Fat-tire biking, hiking, snowshoeing and skiing are but a few activities available to youth. Beyond developing their athletic abilities, several outdoor leadership opportunities are offered through the local school districts and nonprofit organizations. Our incredible surroundings provide infinite options for learning and skill development as well as serving as a classroom with incredible views.

The Voyager Youth Program (for elementary-age children) and Voyager Base Camp (pre-teens and young teens) provide many ways to spend an afternoon or a whole day. The nonprofit organizes field trips, events and times just to hang out with friends.

Be sure to stop in to the Ouray and Ridgway Visitors centers for great seasonal activity suggestions for your children or whole family. Also, find more options with our guide services, listed in the directory on page 36 and 37 on Ouray side.

Planning your Ouray County vacation is easy whether you're driving or flying. Montrose Regional Airport, the closest local airport, also happens to be the largest in southwestern Colorado. The airports in Grand Junction, Telluride, Durango and Gunnison are also easily accessible. Out-of-state guests often fly into Denver International Airport and then drive to Ouray County, taking advantage of other Colorado attractions on the way here; the ever-changing scenery alone makes the drive well worth it. In the wintertime, be sure to check local road reports and be prepared for inclement weather. Visit the Colorado Department of Transportation travel website for the most up-to-date travel reports at cotrip.org or call 511 or (877) 315-7623.

Enjoy the small-town hospitality of Ouray and Ridgway and access world-class skiing at the nearby resorts and ski areas in Telluride, Silverton and Durango. For a milder ride, Ouray's own Lee's Ski Hill offers a free tow rope and some fun turns right in town.

In the winter months, nothing compares to the solitude of a cross-country ski under a full moon along miles of groomed and ungroomed Nordic trails in Ironton Park, just south of Ouray. Top of the Pines, set on a high mesa meadow near Ridgway, also offers miles of trails groomed for skate skiing. To really get away from it all, pack up your backpack and set out on an overnight hut or yurt trip. From mountain rustic to European chic, our regional huts can be reserved for your ski party. Few locations in the world can match the challenging and untracked backcountry terrain of the San Juan Mountains. Before you venture into the backcountry on your own, familiarize yourself with avalanche safety; better yet, go out with one of our professional guides. Local listings for outfitters start on page 36.

Check Out Our Event Facilities

OURAY COUNTY 4H EVENT CENTER

With panoramic views of the San Juan and Cimarron Mountain ranges, the 4H Event Center offers 5,200 square feet of indoor event space and adjoining patios. For groups of up to 320 persons, the center may provide: tables, chairs, a full-service bar, dishware, glassware, flatware, linens and staff for your wedding, meeting, conference, banquet, dinner or special event. More information or event scheduling: (970) 626-3304 or ouraycountycogov.

OURAY COMMUNITY CENTER

Ouray's community and conference center adjacent to the historic City Hall is available for public use. Able to host groups from five to 500, the Community Center is open year-round and offers two meeting rooms: the San Juan Room and Massard Auditorium. It is a great venue for weddings, meetings, reunions, conferences and special events. A full commercial kitchen, elevator, A/V equipment and event rentals are also available. More information: (970) 325-7065.

INSPIRING HIGH-COUNTRY VENUES

Ouray County is full of beautiful high-country event venues on public lands and private property. Top of the Pines (TOP), at the foot of the Sneffels Range, is a 175-acre wilderness jewel offering local communities and visitors a remarkable place to learn, recreate and celebrate among its inspiring vistas and in their upgraded gathering hall. More inspiration and spectacular scenic backdrops can be found at Ridgway State Park, Fellin Park in Ouray, Hartwell Park in Ridgway and our expansive Grand Mesa Uncompahgre National Forest and BLM lands. For park venues, please contact the local government offices for information.

OTHER UNIQUE EVENT FACILITIES

In Ridgway, the historic Sherbino Theater and the inspiring circular "Kiva" Conference Center at the Chipeta Solar Springs Resort offer authentic and elegant event spaces. Additionally, the Chipeta offers a summer event tent from May to September. In Ouray, choose from iconic historic properties like the Beaumont Hotel (which has hosted kings, presidents and movie stars), the Wright Opera House, Elks Lodge and Western Hotel or the more contemporary but beautifully landscaped spaces at the Secret Garden Bed & Breakfast, Twin Peaks Lodge & Hot Springs and Victorian Inn.

Find out more about venues and event management services in the directory listings on pages 40.

With its endless mountain vistas, unique downtowns and western Victorian charm, Ouray County is the ideal location for your wedding any time of year. Summers are pleasant and warm, crisp air and sunshine is typical for autumn and spring, and winters are spectacular with clear blue skies and glistening snow. Historic local churches and grand buildings are also available for special events. You can arrange all the details right in town and your guests will be thrilled to experience a real mountain vacation.

If you are planning a gathering of friends and family or want to head to the high country for team building, then Ouray County is the place to be. For professional retreats, our offerings certainly beat your standard conference room. After all, nothing inspires clear-mindedness and collaboration like our scenery, clean air and unique adventures.

Ouray County loves hosting events, and we'll make sure yours feels special. With more than 800 beds between our hotels, bed and breakfasts, rental homes and condominiums, and a variety of event professionals in both Ouray and Ridgway, accommodations and arrangements are a breeze. Ouray County has venues for groups as small as 10 and larger than 500. For special event service providers, please refer to our local business listings starting on page 40.

Local Services

ARTS & CULTURE

Ouray County Arts Association 970-325-4234 PO Box 167, Ouray ourayarts.org	The Ouray County Arts Association consists of a group of volunteers dedicated to providing art shows for the appreciation of the local populace and visitors to the county. The organization was initiated in 1960 as the brainchild of Joyce Jorgenson, former owner and Editor of the Ouray County Plaindealer. Joyce, being an artist herself, thought there should be a local show for local artists. Others agreed. The Artists' Alpine Holiday began that year, and the rest is history.
Ouray County Performing Arts Guild 970-626-2970 PO Box 14, Ouray ocpag.org	OCPEG in its 32 year history has brought the finest quality performing arts events to Ouray County – from chamber music to folk music and jazz, dance, opera, mime, juggling and a whole variety of events. Check out our website, www.ocpag.org to see what might be offered.
Ouray County Rodeo Association, Inc. 970-275-6051 PO Box 711, Ridgway ouraycountyrodeo.com	Ouray County Rodeo Association is a nonprofit organization dedicated to preserving the area's rich ranching heritage by providing scholarships and other education and equestrian focused financial support to area children.
Ouray Elks Lodge BPOE #492 970-325-4510 421 Main St, Ouray ourayelks.org	The Lodge was founded in 1899. Primary programs are youth activities, including scholarships, in-home visits from Santa on Christmas Eve, sports and educational programs; veteran support, including an annual fundraiser for the Grand Junction VA hospital; and other community activities, such as fundraisers for people needing help with medical expenses. Contact the lodge for more information.
Ouray Novels, Mindy Obenhaus Ouray mindyobenhaus.com	Fall in love with Ouray with inspiring romance novels that have you revisiting some of Ouray's most memorable places. Mindy Obenhaus fell in love with Ouray and knew she had to use the town as the setting in her novels. She seamlessly weaves in the beauty and history of Ouray with romantic stories of hope and happily-ever-afters. Visit her website to learn more about her books and see the 10 things she loves about Ouray.
Ridgway Chautauqua at the Sherbino 970-318-0892 604 Clinton St, Ridgway sherbino.org	The Mission of the Ridgway Chautauqua Society at the Sherbino is to embody the Chautauqua tradition by producing programs celebrating lifelong learning, the arts, culture and community. RCS/Sherbino's Vision is to exemplify both innovation and history in vibrant community gathering places, advancing the creative and economic vitality of our region. Over 150 programs are offered at the Sherbino each year in a variety of areas: community theatre, professional theatre, live music, dance hall nights, trivia nights, film, poetry readings, community rentals and more! Full details of upcoming events can always be found at www.sherbino.org .
Weehawken Creative Arts 970-318-0150 1075 Sherman St Suite 210, Ridgway weehawkenarts.org	At Weehawken Creative Arts, we are in the business of changing lives, nurturing dreams, and helping kids and adults in Ouray County and neighboring communities discover their creative potential through the arts. We offer transformative, individualized arts education programming led by extraordinary instructors, as well as a variety of art-inspired events. More than that we offer a place for you to find your very own community of kindred spirits, wherever your artistic passion lies.
Wright Opera House 970-325-4399 472 Main St, Ouray thewrightoperahouse.org	Recognizing the potential to preserve and restore arts and culture in Ouray County by purchasing the historic Wright Opera House, a group of volunteers came together in 2007 and formed the non-profit organization 'Friends of the Wright Opera House'. The vision that followed was nothing short of promoting artistic, cultural and educational opportunities for all by providing a centralized venue for performing arts organizations and by restoring the facility for another century of use.
UpstART 970-325-3501 PO Box 1285, Ouray upstartmoves.org	Come play with us! UpstART seeks to Awaken, Enliven & Entertain audiences in Ouray County and beyond, by presenting professional quality theater and education through a Rural/Urban collaboration of artists. 2018's schedule includes a production of Hedwig and the Angry Inch as well as the annual No Holds Bard interactive Shakespeare theater performances.

WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS ARE SAYING...

"Not having any experience driving the narrow mountain trails ourselves, our family chose to take a guided tour with your company. The never-ending views, waterfalls and wildlife were beyond our expectations. We were so happy with our decision!"

— Darla, Indiana

"Thank you so much for taking us over Black Bear and Imogene Pass. Your company made sure we felt comfortable and safe. The guide told us many great facts about the mining and mountains in the area, as well as funny stories that kept us laughing. This is one of the most exciting things we've ever done."

— Amy, Texas

"We rented a Jeep in June, and were very impressed by your team's excitement over Jeeping. It was contagious! The staff was patient and informative when it came to reviewing maps, what points of interest to look for, and what to expect with the trails."

— Steve, Florida
